UNCLASSIFIED*Applicability*❖ Applicability of Personnel Recovery Theater Entry Requirements (TER):

- Required for all U.S. military on official and/or leave travel, DoD civilians and DoD sponsored CAAF contractors (See Note 3) on official travel only within the USPACOM AOR.
- TER do not apply for travel to Hawaii, Guam or any U.S. territory or possession.

➤ Validity:

- Must be completed prior to entry into the AOR.

➤ Instructions:

- Use this document to find a list of PR TERS with instructions.
- This document is subject to change at any time.
- Refer to the FCG for the current PR TERS prior to all travel in the USPACOM AOR.

NOTE: DoD-sponsored contractors. In accordance with the terms of their contracts, DoD-sponsored contractors are to comply to the extent feasible with Theater Entry Requirements (TERs). Following are specific examples in which travelers are NOT required to complete TERs: a. DoD civilians and sponsored contractors on unofficial travel (leave). b. DoD sponsored contractors on official orders that are NOT designated under contract for Contractors Authorized to Accompany the Force (CAAF). c. Non-CAAF DoD sponsored contractors under a contract that does NOT specifically direct personnel to meet the TERs.

NOTE: USPACOM PR Theater Entry Requirements are intended to outline the minimum requirements. Services and Functional Components could and should have more restrictive requirements based on mission, AOR, and risk.

UNCLASSIFIED*HRI/HRE Instructions

Units, Services, and Components should identify and provide specific levels of training for designated HRI/E personnel. USPACOM will continue to identify specific training requirements for personnel operating in an HRI/E environment. These instructions are subject to immediate change and should be referenced prior to each entry into theater. Additional HRI/E training requirements will be submitted via AMHS and updated in the FCG.

❖ An individual is considered High Risk of Isolation or Exploitation (HRI/E) if one or more of the following categories apply:

- DoD personnel on official travel to a DoD-designated travel restricted or denied area.
- DoD personnel performing missions or operating in hostile environments.
- DoD personnel designated as HRI/E by the DoD, Service component, or Combatant Commander (generally based on mission, destination, position, or training).

❖ HRI/E-designated personnel will complete one of the following requirements:

- Service developed training for HRI/E personnel.
  - Examples: Level C SERE School, Level C refresher students, S-V88-AL Evasion and Conduct After Capture (ECAC), SERE 100.2, other pre mission SERE and Conduct after Capture training.
  - Service training will be validated by component PROPR and PACOM J358 and prior to implementation as HRI/E equivalent.
- PACJ7-US014, on JKO SIPR: <https://jkolmspub.jten.smil.mil>

Coordinate Service developed HRI/E training through your PACOM Service component PR OPR and the PACOM PR office.

NOTE: Completion of HRI/E training is effective for 36 months and fulfills the theater entry requirement.
